There can be only one possible means of ascertaining, and that is, to find out the marriage register - approximate date, early in 1844.
This may be difficult as the parents were, at times, resident in three different places.

Dublin - Bangor - Liverpool.

I have a vague notion that the first named might yield fruit. E. S.

Was not a Birth-Certificate obtained in connection with the War Loan? If so, would it not serve to identify the place of marriage? -
